

HAMILTON, Bermuda - September 27th, 2019 - Armour Group Ltd ("Armour") today announced the appointment of Yulia Bruskova as the Group's Chief Risk Officer. Ms. Bruskova will assume her new position in November and will report to the Group CEO and the appropriate governance committees.

Ms. Bruskova is an experienced reinsurance risk executive having previously served as Group Actuary for a large Bermuda reinsurer. Most recently, she served as the Chief Risk Officer for a Bermuda domiciled reinsurer. Ms. Bruskova also previously led a "Big Four" accounting firm's Bermuda actuarial practice and is a qualified Actuary and Fellow of the Institute and Faculty of Actuaries, U.K.

Brad Huntington, Armour Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, commented, "We are delighted that Yulia has agreed to join Armour as Group CRO. She brings a wide range of technical and practical experience and knowledge to our group."

"I am excited to join Armour, particularly in light of the company's significant growth and development opportunities. Armour has a best-in-class team and I look forward to working with the team to further the company's strategic objectives as part of it," said Ms. Bruskova.
